

Designing a
New Way to Think in the Age of AI

USAI Lighting Continues to Expand Its Extensive, Innovative Product Offering

USAI Lighting has introduced innovative products including ultra-narrow beams for precision highlighting and a new 2400K color temperature for a warm ambiance. Their TrueZero360® technology has expanded to include various trim styles and improved wall wash optics, enhancing visual comfort and design integration. The advancements aim to meet the evolving demands of the lighting industry while providing versatile solutions for specifiers.